

SWITCHING DOCTORS

IT'S AS EASY AS 1, 2, 3

If you've enrolled in a new plan or your network has changed, you may find yourself in need of a new doctor. FOLLOW THESE STEPS for a smooth transition.

1 Decide where to go.

With lots of options, how do you know which doctor or specialist is right for you?

- FIND A DOCTOR NEARBY AND IN NETWORK. Use the Find a Doctor tool on myWellmark.com to find a doctor at a location that's convenient for you and in network — this will ensure you're paying the lowest costs. Once you know they are in network, you should call their office to check that they are accepting new patients.
- ASK YOUR CURRENT DOCTOR FOR A REFERRAL. If you're comfortable asking, your current doctor is a great resource. They already know your history and can make a recommendation based on your personal needs.

2 Get organized.

- GET A SUPPLY OF ANY CURRENT PRESCRIPTIONS so you won't have to worry about running out during your transition.
- REQUEST YOUR MEDICAL RECORDS BE TRANSFERRED. You'll want to have all of your records sent to your new doctor's office. Your new doctor's office should be able to help you with this at your first visit or you can call them in advance for assistance. Some offices may require a signature and have a fee for record transfers.

3 Prepare for your first visit.

Have these items ready to go before you meet your new doctor for the first time:

- MAKE A LIST of allergies, previous surgeries, diseases that run in your family and any other important information you want your new doctor to know. Plan to take a copy with you on your first visit.
- CREATE A LIST OF QUESTIONS you want to ask. How long have you been a physician? How would you describe your communication style? If you're unavailable, who should I ask to see? Getting these answers, and more, will help you get to know your doctor better and confirm they are the right fit for your needs.
